

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.
PUBLISHED DAILY.

The Alexandria Gazette Corporation.
Gazette Building - - - King Street.
ROBERT S. BARRETT, President, and General Manager.

HOWARD W. SMITH, Secretary and Treasurer.

Entered at the Postoffice of Alexandria, Virginia as second-class matter.

MODERN
CROUSES.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch says:

"The Alexandria Gazette remarks that few men in this world who have amassed colossal fortunes by their industry and genius escape the solent cry of 'tainted' money and that 'it may be safely said that there are thousands of people in the world who would not make as good use of immense fortunes as Rockefeller, Mr. Carnegie and others.'"

"All of this is true, but does the Gazette believe that any man has ever amassed a colossal fortune solely by industry and genius and does it believe that any man can measure up to the responsibility of its possession? With cries against individuals just because they are wealthy, reasonable men have no sympathy, but that is not to say that the acquisition and possession of swollen fortunes have been the cause of more good than evil."

The Gazette was not attempting to apologize for some persons who have not made good use of their money, but simply mentioned two who are most generally condemned in our day. We never adopted the views of Jerry Simpson and others to the effect that sin entered the world via Wall street, but have often thought that the burden of riches brings its sorrows. Young Mr. Rockefeller is being hunted by murderous fanatics at this present moment, while his father's country home is ablaze with powerful arm lights and special officers patrol all approaches to the house.

We once heard a minister say after reading the words, "Woe to you that are rich," that for years he had thought objects of this attack were those only who are rich; but in his later days he was convinced it applied also to others who were all the time enjoying the opulent. If the murderers and complainers of this world had the money most of such would wind up as the prodigal son.
They were kept down because they lacked the means of satiating their appetites. The minister was probably right.

ANOTHER WHITE HOUSE BRIDE.

Marriage bells were again in evidence in the White House yesterday evening, when W. G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury, and Miss Eleanor Wilson, youngest daughter of Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, entered the bonds of matrimony. Compared with the recent nuptials of her sister, now Mrs.
Sayre, the wedding yesterday was of a comparatively quiet nature. The newly-wedded couple did not tarry long after the ceremony, but started, it is supposed, for their future home on the Hudson.

This is the fourteenth wedding which has occurred in the White House.
The congratulations of the country go with the newly wedded couple, and it is hoped their path through life will be pleasant to the end of the journey.

REVISION OF CODE.

Former Governor is Favored Member of Committee for Work.

Richmond, Va., May 8.—Among the members of the Virginia bar and judiciary recommended to the Supreme Court of Appeals as fitting candidates for the committee created under act of the last General Assembly to revise the code are former Governor Wm.
Hodges Mann, of Petersburg; Judge T. W. Harrison, of Winchester, and former delegate James R. Catton, of Alexandria.

Under the provisions of the act creating the code revision committee, which carried an appropriation of $40,000, the Supreme Court is to recommend the names of ten candidates, from which the names of three, who will comprise the commission, will be chosen by the governor.
The code revision commission will elect its own clerk, who is expected to be a lawyer of equal capacity to members of the commission itself. Upon the clerk will devolve in a large measure the responsibility of drafting the frame work of the code.

ARMSTRONG PLEADS GUILTY.

Sentenced to Serve Aggregate of Eight Years in Penitentiary.

Augusta, Ga., May 8.—James P.
Armstrong entered a plea of guilty in the Superior Court yesterday to five indictments charging forgery and one indictment for being cashier of a bank which became fraudulently insolvent, and was sentenced to serve an aggregate of eight years in the penitentiary. Armstrong was cashier of the Irish-American Bank, which failed last December. He is also under indictment for embezzlement, but he did not plead guilty to that charge. The representative of the bank examiners showed an alleged deficit of about $190,000.

Armstrong appeared in court with his counsel, and when the case against him was sounded he wrote out the pleas of guilty himself.

CHALONER CASE ON APPEAL.

United States Circuit Court Hears Argument and Reserves Decision.

New York, May 8.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals heard argument yesterday on the appeal of John Armstrong Chaloner, of Virginia, from the decision of a lower court, dismissing his suit against Thomas T. Sherman, for the purpose of regaining control of his estate in New York, said to be worth several million dollars.

Chaloner, declared by the New York State courts to be insane, but by the Virginia courts to be sane, once was in an asylum in Westchester county, but escaped, fled South and began his legal fight to regain control of his estate. Sherman, the defendant in Chaloner's suit, was appointed as the committee of the plaintiff's person and property in New York.

School Boy Falls Dead.

New Canton, Va., May 8.—A tragic death occurred in the passenger station at Brems Bluff this noon, when young Joseph Jones, of Ar-vonica, a member of Arvonica High School baseball team, dropped dead from heart failure in the presence of a number of his companions who had walked down the railroad track from Arvonica on their way to play baseball in Scottsville.

CONSTIPATION RELIEVED ENTIRELY AT OUR RISK.

Unless Rexall Orderlies relieve your bowel troubles and make you feel like coming back to thank us for telling you about them, then come back any way, and ask us to give you your money back. This is just as strong as we can make this guarantee, and we want to make it strong, because we believe that Rexall Orderlies are the best bowel remedy made.

Soothing and easy in action, they cleanse the bowels, thoroughly toning and strengthening them, and make you feel great. They promote easy and regular bowel action, help to promptly relieve constipation and overcome its cause. In these things they differ from old-fashioned, harsh, disagreeable salts and other physics which usually give only temporary relief and often leave the bowels in worse condition than ever.
They taste like candy and even children like them. They are particularly good for children and for delicate and aged people. In vest pocket tin boxes; 10c, 25c, 50c.

You can buy Rexall Orderlies only at the Rexall stores, and in this town from Wm. P. Taylor, druggist, 616 King street.

CAPT. MARK'S BODY FOUND.

Norfolk, Va., May 8.—Murdered last November, while his schooner, the Mary Inez, lay at anchor in Chesapeapeake, the body of Captain J. E.
Marks has just been found.

It floated into a pound net near Gayne Island and was hauled into a boat by fishermen. Captain Marks is supposed to have been murdered for his money. A negro member of his crew is accused of the crime, but the police of several cities have been unable to locate him.

A tin box in which Captain Marks usually kept his money was missing from the cabin of his schooner after the murder.

TRIES SUICIDE IN COURT.

Young Woman Takes Poison to Keep From Testifying.

Cambridge, Md., May 8.—Miss Hazel B. Topfer, principal witness for her mother, Mrs. Annie R. Topfer, against Avery Todd Malone in the damage suit for alleged seduction, attempted suicide by swallowing several bichloride of mercury tablets while sitting at the trial table in the Courtroom here today.

The girl had a dozen or more of the tablets in her hand. She was prevented from swallowing the others by the prompt action of those near her, who grasped her arms and took the tablets from her.

The attempt at suicide was made just before the case, which had been removed from Wicomico county, was called for trial. The courtroom was crowded and the first witness was on the stand when Miss Topfer quickly put several of the tablets in her mouth and swallowed them.

She reeled in her chair and those nearest her went to her assistance.
Just as they reached her the girl attempted to raise the other hand to her mouth, but was prevented. When her clenched fingers were forced open a dozen or more tablets were found.

Miss Topfer soon became nauseated. Physicians were summoned and she was removed to the hospital, where emetics and a stomach pump were applied. Although very weak, the girl is expected to recover.

Miss Topfer is said to have been humiliated because of the suit, and her act is thought to have been caused by hysteria. To one of the attending physicians she is said to have stated that she would die sooner than testify against Malone.

The attempted suicide caused the Malone case to be abandoned for a while, as the officials of the court and spectators awaited word from the hospital.

It was later resumed and most of the evidence was presented before court adjourned for the day.

A letter was submitted written by Miss Topfer to Malone in which she said she did not blame him and that her mother was responsible for the suit being prosecuted.

Malone was fined at Salisbury several weeks ago for contempt of court for having removed Miss Top-fer from the jurisdiction of the Wi-comico court.
